

I want more distributed ownership and competition among media companies, not less. I am very concerned about this issues, which speaks directly to the future of democracy in the electronic age. I will read the roll call on this rule change, and I vote.